

Please join us in prayer for:

- Eugene Wenger (Laura Hill's Friend from Virginia) was just diagnosed with cancer and needing three months of chemo; please pray for strength, guidance and healing as he endures.
- All of the People who have lost loved ones due to mudslides and heavy rain and wind.
- June Mathias as she continues to work for the Lord

Let's Talk!

Wouldn't it be great to take some time as a whole congregation to talk informally about who we are as a church and what is going on in and around us? We think so! Therefore we've scheduled a "Family Meeting" following our outdoor service on July 9th. And instead of a full carry-in potluck meal CCAM will provide a light picnic lunch before our meeting.

"How to Neighbor" Series Goals Update:

Reading plan Completions: 12 Goal Met!

Reflective house signs accepted by our neighbors so far: 17

Please continue to submit to the church office, by 10:00 a.m. on Friday mornings, any prayer requests (including prayer updates), praises and/or announcements which you wish to have included in the bulletin.

Coming this October, 2017

Starting in October a Home School Educational Ministry will be starting at our church. LOOKING for ANYONE who is passionate about a skill/subject and would be willing to share that "love-to-learn" with children from our church and community. Classes will be held Wednesdays from 2:30-5:30 for an 8-week session. Please contact Jill Jendrowski or Rachel Meyers with questions and willingness to pour into the next generation. Above and beyond the Reading, Writing and Arithmetic we'd love specialized classes such as kitchen/cooking skills, auto/lawn mechanic, electrical, history, geography, flowers/bird names, law, knitting, scuba diving 101, woodworking, Home economics, Life of honeybees, foreign or sign languages, money management, plumbing, survival skills, or outdoor adventure.

Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet

Peace of the City is presenting Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet on Thursday and Friday, June 29th and the 30th at 7 p.m. at Shea's Smith Theater (right next to Shea's Performing Arts Center). You are cordially invited to attend at least one of the performances. Our church family will once again help to provide the pre-performance meals. If you are able to help with these meals either night, please see Cheryl Snyder (for Thursday night) or Linda Wideman (for Friday night). If you would like to attend and don't want to drive downtown, please let either of these women know so that we can help arrange a ride for you.

You are invited to a licensing service for Rod McCallum on Sunday afternoon, July 16 at 2 p.m. Rod will be credentialed for ministry in New York Mennonite Conference; he currently serves NYMC as Buffalo Anabaptist Coordinator and is also beginning a new YFC ministry in Buffalo.

The service will be hosted by Christ Crusaders Assembly located at 225 Glenwood Avenue, Buffalo, NY. The church is just down the street from Rod and Meghan's home at 195 Glenwood Avenue; immediately following the service the McCallum's will host a potluck cookout at their home.

It will be a wonderful time; hope you can come!

The Wednesday night ladies Bible study is inviting all ladies and teen girls to join us this coming Wednesday, June 28, from 6:00 to 7:30 for a short Bible study time. We will share some light snacks from 6:00-6:30 and then spend the rest of the time discussing some of the readings from "How to Neighbor."

Even if you did not elect to do the 10-day reading plan, you are welcome to join us. You are welcome to bring a snack or beverage with you. Please contact Sandi Meyers to let her know if you will be there.
