EMANUEL HOUSE – UPDATE

As many of our congregation know, Sandy Craft has been very involved with the Emanuel House in the Dominican Republic. She emailed me this Facebook post to report on how they are doing in light of the Coronavirus Pandemic. Please keep them in prayer.

“Just wanted to update you all about the COVID-19 here in the Dominican Republic. The country has been under quarantine, and a 5:00 PM till 6:00AM curfew for 6 weeks now. In the country here there are 7288 cases and 313 deaths. In Quisqueya we just started with COVID cases yesterday. Your prayers are coveted very much as here in Quisqueya, there is not a whole lot of space for social distancing. Everyone lives very close to one another, and many live in one house. Please pray for safety, health, and provisions that only God can bring.”

CONNECTING WITH THE CICALI FAMILY

—WITH JACK KEOUGH

It was a great time speaking with Aaron and Kristen Cicali by phone. It was great to hear their voices, especially Aaron is feeling better each day. Like so many of us, they're trudging through this social isolation and distancing. The kids are making the best of online learning, but certainly missing school and most obviously their friends. Kristen notes that when they're in school, it provides a full day of activities which can be hard to match at home. Nevertheless, the kids are keeping busy with odd jobs and, thankfully, some fun video games.

Kristen shared that she does enjoy her walks out into the garden when she is needing some alone time. Aaron is working from home with some infrequent visits into the office. Aaron and Kristen did express thankfulness for family meals and stressed the importance of nourishing that family connection. They really look forward to reuniting in person with the church family.

“THE BEST QUESTION EVER” BY ANDY STANLEY

—SUBMITTED BY MIKE MOLVAREC

Heavenly Father, today I place myself under your authority. I surrender all of me to you. As you demonstrated your love for me through the death of your Son, so I desire to demonstrate my love for you through a renewed mind and surrendered will: Thy will be done in me. I surrender all. In the name of my Savior, I pray. Amen
