

True Vine Times August 6, 2020

A note from the Editor

Annie Myers

After reflection and thought I have made the decision to step down from my position on the newsletter's team as the primary editor. This was a great learning opportunity for me throughout the past couple months. I want to thank everyone who has encouraged me along the way, it means a lot. I have made this decision as I look forward to what the fall may hold for my schooling and job opportunities. God bless!

Beaver Camp !!!!!!!

CHANGE IN TRUE VINE TIMES

Please note that with Annie taking a step back, the format of the True Vine Times will change.

We feel that it is important to keep the publication going as another means to stay connected as a church family. The length and content will be different -but hopefully valued.

Please contact Jack Keough if you are interested in helping out. -Jack

Thoughts from a prayer warrior
Lori R.

Jonah 2:1 From inside the fish Jonah prayed to the Lord his God

Those of us who know Lori R. well, realize that she prays with the best of them. I recently spoke with her to find out how she became such strong, fervent prayer warrior. Lori reflected back on her days in catechism as a child and connected to the Lord by just talking to God. Lori has used prayer to be missional and uses prayer as an opportunity to reach out to many people in her context and beyond. She does say that it is risky because she never knows how people will react. I remember sharing with her about a significant concern with my sister- Lori paused in that moment and began to pray! I felt so encouraged. We should all have the bravery to pray like this. God bless her.
