

True Vine Times August 21, 2020

Church Council met on August 18th - one the topics discussed was about opening the church to small group gatherings for attenders. Please contact the church office for more details and any questions.

PLEASE CHECK EMAIL SUNDAY MORNING IF THE WEATHER SEEMS QUESTIONABLE.

Movie on the church lawn TONIGHT!- bring warm clothes, and bug spray- and please observe safe distancing measures.

Another selection from Robert Mast's "Collection of Wit and Wisdom". Taken from December 2007 Mennonite Weekly. Making the most of the rest of your life. 1) Simplify your life. 2) Heal your bitter memories. 3) Accept who you are. 4) Be good stewards of your health. 5) Reach out to others (make friends of all ages) 6) Find a purpose for living. 7) See your life in the context of eternity. 8) Educate yourself; keep learning new things. 9) Increase your likability; be pleasant to be around. Learn to grow old gracefully.- "What I spent is gone. What I kept is lost. What I give away... is mine forever. "
Elaine Sommers Rich

I learned from Megan Brown's grandmother that Megan recently adopted a rescue horse from Kentucky.

1 Kings 18:36

Marty and Shirley

Marty and Shirley are sisters, friends and now neighbors. Marty sold her home on Indian Falls Road last fall and bought a small home next door to Joe and Shirley in the village of Akron. What a blessing. They share a beautiful flower garden between the two properties and enjoy visiting and sharing some meals together. They continue to make pleasant the lives of people around them.

Pray in all things..... Please pray for pastor Dale and his family as late this Sunday evening, they will start a journey to bring Liz to college in Florida.

Love Letters: I spent time with Arlene Snyder today while working at Vinecroft. She is doing very well. As we took a walk, she told me that she has been reading through the letters that Leighton sent to her while they were courting. I enjoyed our time together and her stories. Perhaps we should all consider writing that special someone in our lives a handwritten letter.

Please see your church email about helping MCC with school kits.

